50X1-HUM

1. The Deputy CO of the Polish Navy, Rear-Admiral Mohuczy, is assisted by Commander Urbanowicz, a Soviet officer who acts as Mohuczy's Political-Educational Deputy, and Commander Szelagowski, Chief of the Soviet Naval Mission.
2. Another person of influence is Major Lebledz and a certain Kerkas. The latter appears to be of Latvian origin and is employed by the Soviets; it is not known whether he possesses any military or naval rank. All regulations and orders issued by the Polish Navy must first be checked and approved by Lebledz and Kerkas, especially Kerkas.
3. In accordance with the wishes of Moscow, the development of the Polish Navy is to be hastened at the expense of the Army. Up to the present this has been difficult, due to the lack of cadres and especially the lack of training ships.
4. The Polish Navy is bound by the Soviet Penal Code.
5. Rates of pay in the Polish Navy are as follows:

Rank	Regular	Reserve	Other Allowances
AB Seaman	800 zlotys	45 zlotys	"Functional" allowances amounting to 100-200 zlotys; regulars get 1 kg sugar, 1 kg butter, and 200 cigarettes a month.
Junior Petty Officer	800 zlotys	45 "
Petty Officer	900 "	45 "
Chief Petty Officer	1,100 "	45 "
W/O	1,500 "	750 "	"Functional" allowances from 100-400 zlotys and food allocations for regulars in quantities slightly larger than those granted to Petty Officers.
Sub.Lt.	2,000 "	1,000 "
Lt.	2,500 "	1,800 "
Lt. Commander	3,500 "	2,500 "
Commander (Junior)	5,500 "	3,500 "
Commander (Senior)	7,000 "	4,500 "
